Importing from Facebook into localendar

Facebook provides an iCalendar URL or all of your upcoming events. You can use this URL to automatically sync your Facebook events with localendar.

Click the "Export Events" llink on the top of the Events page and copy the URL that follows to your clipboard. Once you have this URL, follow the instructions on Importing iCalendar into your localendar